Leverhulme Whole School Approach to Online Safety

Training

- Cyber security training for all staff with access to school IT system
- Induction training for new staff
- Annual Online Safety training for staff and governors
- Clearly defined roles and responsibilities

Filtering & Monitoring

- Network filtering system in place that meets the DaTS* requirements
- Network monitoring system in place that meets the DaTS* requirements
- Reponsible staff monitoring and reacting to alerts from monitoring system on a regular basis
- Physical monitoring by staff watching screens of users
- Effective use of CPOMs by all staff
- Online Safety provision reviewed yearly

Teaching & Learning

- Effective teaching of Digital Citzenship as part of the computing curriulum
- Effective teaching of PSHE part of the wider curriulum
- Identify children at greater risk of harm
- Regular audits of children and families' online behaviour and harms for baseline, this information to feed into risk assessment
- Clearly defined procedures for responding to and escalating Online Safety incidents

Culture

- DSL has lead responsibility for Online Safety and understands the filtering and monitoring processes in place.
- DSL liaise with SLT and IT provider to develop Online Safety action plan
- Online Safety policy and Acceptable Users Agreements are effective
- Annual Online Safety review
- Annual Online Safety Risk Assessment
- Adopt Esafety Champions within school
- Regular communication with parents

*DaTS - Digital and Technology Standards